

PROSTATE CANCER EDUCATION WORKSHOP

May 24, 2008

A free Prostate Cancer Education Workshop is being offered on Saturday, May 24, 2008 from 9:00 AM – 12:30 PM at the Labor of Love Apostolic Church, 2800 East 79th Street, Chicago, Illinois. In order to assure every participant has a kit, you will need to RSVP by leaving your name and telephone number at 773: 955-8773, or by faxing 773: 955-7954, or by emailing: excprdcr@sbcglobal.net no later than 12:00 Noon on Wednesday, May 21, 2008.

This workshop will address the purpose for prostate cancer awareness, information will be presented on the risks associated with prostate cancer, including anatomy, prevention, early detection methods, and treatment options. There will be discussion of program goals, objectives, structures, and activities as well. There will also be group discussion on how do we reach people to share prostate cancer education and the availability of local community resources for the medically underserved. There will be a complete pre-test at the beginning of the workshop.

Near the end of the program there will be a complete post-test, evaluation, survey, summary, conclusion as well as a group photo and certificates will be mailed to the participants.

The program will be conducted by Jamal Rasheed, a 1972 Harlan graduate and past president of the John M. Harlan High School Alumni Association, NFP. Jamal is a prostate cancer survivor and is a spokesperson for Prostate Cancer Education.

This workshop is being sponsored by J. Byron Hooks, Ph.D. "Thread the Needle" Cable Channel 21, (Dr. Hooks is a retired faculty from Harlan High School), Labor of Love Apostolic Church and the National Prostate Cancer Coalition.

We strongly encourage you, family members, and/or friends to participate in this educational offering in light of the increasing diagnosis of prostate cancer with our men. Women are also invited to attend this informative session.
